RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.—Rev. Geo. C. Chandler sends a communication to the Advocate, giving a particular account of a two years' canvass of Yamhill county, in the interest of the American Bible Society. He says: "During the work, the friends of the cause in our county have collected $220. Paid our colporteur for his labors, $112 75, and the remainder, $107 25, has been paid to Elder Driver, agent of the American Bible Society." The canvass mentioned reports that he visited in the county, 777 families, numbering 4,189 persons; of these, 223 were professors of religion. He found 129 families with the Bible and 51 without either Bible or Testament. The professors of religion were of the following denominations: Baptists, 118; Methodists, 300; Presbyterians, 16; Christian Church, 259; United Brethren, 14; Roman Catholics, 99; Episcopalians, 12; Congregationalists, 3.

We get the following, also, from the Advocate: A festival given for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church in [illegible] City, June 2d, brought about $130.

The annual meeting of the Christian Church of Oregon will be held this year on the camp ground, near the mouth of the Rickreal, Polk county, commencing on the 18th of June.

There will be a camp meeting near Hillsboro, to commence on Thursday, June 17th.

There will be a camp meeting on Yamhill circuit at the old camp ground two miles above Sheridan, on the Yamhill river, commencing on Thursday, June 24th.

The camp meeting at Ames' Chapel commenced on [illegible]day, and will continue over the Sabbath. It is eight miles west of the city.

The Missionary Concert on last Sabbath, at the M E Church, was unusually interesting. Receipts for Missionary causes, $18.

The strawberry festival on last Monday night, to behalf of the Congregational Society, was a very pleasant occasion. The proceeds of the festival and lunch the following day, were $154.

FROM THE DALLES.—We find the following in the Mountaineer:

The river is lower now than it has been at the same time of year for a long while.

The Circuit Court of Wasco County commences its session on Monday. The calendar is quite large, there being three criminal cases.

Wm. Campbell has been surveying the boundaries of the city, by orders from the Board of City Fathers. Several disputed and probable resort to law, has been stopped.

The O. S. N. Co's steamer Oneonta was placed in the trade last Wednesday. She has come out in a new dress entire, and now is the finest craft afloat on the waters of the northern coast.

Messrs. Harford and Dunn, naturalists from California, have been gathering specimens of conchology, botany and mollusks in the vicinity of our city, during the past week.

They intend making a tour to Walla Walla.

A "strike" among the mechanics and laborers on the Government work, took place on Wednesday morning, owing to the belief that the "eight hour system" was the only one used by the Government. They have till now been working ten hours, and receiving full wages. They again resumed work on Thursday morning, working the same number of hours and receiving the same wages as before.

EAST SIDE RAILROAD MATTERS.—The directors of the East Side road have been in session this week at Salem. Of their doings, we have learned next to nothing. The [illegible] of yesterday, however, had the following [illegible], which will serve to show what may be expected:

The Oregon Central Railroad Company (east side) have [illegible] wharf made and the plans nearly completed for a wharf on the east side of Wallamet river, opposite [illegible]. The wharf will be three hundred feet long and [illegible] in width. It is the intention to commence work on it immediately, so as to have it ready for receiving the iron to arrive in July and August."

We have been permitted to lay the following dispatch [illegible] our readers, which explains itself. The [illegible] and are cheering as they are certain. The day of railroad inactivity is past:

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10th, 1869.

To J. H. MCCONNAUGHEY: We have purchased from A. A. [illegible] ten [illegible] and tons railroad iron to arrive 15th July. Will have over twenty miles of road completed and fully equipped by 1st December next.

BEN. HOLLADAY & CO.,
Contractors."

FRANCHISES.—We learn from an article in the Vancouver [illegible] concerning the examination of the Fletcher boys, as follows:

[illegible] is, one against three of the Fletcher boys for [illegible] them with an assault with intent to murder the other [illegible] one of the Fletcher boys and [illegible] with an assault with intent to kill. On [illegible] by the prosecuting witness withdrew or abandoned these [illegible] and filed a new affidavit charging all the above [illegible] and T. J. Fletcher with an assault [illegible] to murder Van Vleet, T. M. and A. M. Coffee, [illegible] as before, pleaded not guilty, and [illegible] by consent of all parties, continued the hearing [illegible], on account of the condition of Mr. T. J. [illegible]. It is now expected that he will, within that time, [illegible] sufficiently to attend the examination. All [illegible] except T. J. Fletcher gave bonds in the sum of $500, each, for their appearance. Fletcher, Sr., has not yet been [illegible] arrested. Having a bullet [illegible] him, he is not suspected by the prosecution [illegible] any present intention of leaving the jurisdiction.

[illegible] OF JULY PARTY.—There will be a dancing party at [illegible] Washington Guards Armory, on Saturday evening, June 26, under the management of the following [illegible]: Wm. H. Wood, J. A. Th[illegible], W. B. [illegible], C. F. Stewart, Wm. Braden, Geo. E. Gilbert, [illegible], O. C. McCrimmon, Capt. Ed. Cahalin, [illegible] and C. P. Ferry. Tickets can be procured of [illegible] or at the door, the number and of no one else; and no [illegible] will be received at the door unless endorsed by [illegible]. The music will be furnished by [illegible] Band, and the [illegible] will be under the direction of Prof. McCann. Price of tickets, admitting [illegible] and one or more ladies, $1 50; for [illegible] each gentleman will be expected to be accompanied by a lady. The committee will be careful to [illegible] no tickets to objectionable persons, and every effort will be made to render the entertainment pleasant to all of the guests.

[illegible].—We invite special attention to the [illegible] of the Life Insurance Co., now [illegible]. This company was chartered by special act [illegible] approved July 25, 1868, with a cash [illegible] $200,000, and claims to have done, since that time, a [illegible] larger business than any other [illegible] in the United States. It offers many advantages [illegible], which are duly enumerated in the [illegible] advertised to, among which is the fact that [illegible] received are kept in the State and invested [illegible]. It is essentially a home company. This is [illegible] the case in every State. The investments thus [illegible] in all parts of the country, rather than the stability of [illegible] is less liable to be shaken by the sectional [illegible] in business which frequently occur. We [illegible] all to read the advertisement whether contemplating [illegible] or not. Wells, Fargo & Co. are the [illegible] agents for the Pacific coast; Dr. A. B. Mills, [illegible] for the State of Oregon. Call and see him.

FROM WILLOW CREEK MINES.—Mr. Chas. Perkins who, for a long time was chief clerk at the American Exchange [illegible], has just returned from the Willow Creek mining [illegible]. He has spent the last three or four months [illegible]. He says early spring there were a great many [illegible] but the most of them have now gone [illegible]. A few White Pine and others scattered about in [illegible]. There is not sufficient water to work profitably, and even the small supply now to be had will soon be dried up. The mines on Willow, Birch and Camp [illegible] will, finally, but the want of water baffles all [illegible] enterprise. During this season, the great [illegible] will probably be completed and it is expected that [illegible] will open with more favorable prospects than [illegible] at any time in the past.

[illegible].—The Unionist says the lumbering establishment of Salem are cutting an average of 124,000 [illegible] per week.

[illegible] Sawyer has commenced an action against Alfred [illegible] for verbal slander. The plaintiff claims ten [illegible] dollars damages.

[illegible]. J. H. Mitchell, W. Lair Hill and Joseph Gaston [illegible] this week, on business connected with the case now pending between the east and west side R. R. [illegible]. Evidence in the case is being taken before J. P. [illegible], Esq.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.—Steam was raised, yesterday, in the boiler of McLeran's new steam flouring mill. The [illegible] worked well. Grinding will soon be begun.

Mr. J. H. Reed has received and declined an invitation [illegible] an oration at Salem on the 4th of July.

Workmen are engaged in laying down the plank aprons at street crossings along First street.

[illegible] tents have been effected with the O. S. N. Co., [illegible] by persons, attending our celebration, from Dallas to Portland and back, for $6 25.

THE BAND IS STILL PLAYING.—Beach's band has been very [illegible] on the spot for the last few days. It has given us something of a variety, too, since Tuesday. On [illegible] it played a medley, in which the notes of Dixie were entirely too distinct to please Republican ears. [illegible] day it played Yankee Doodle vigorously and never missed a note. The band is still playing—that same old tune.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. A. [illegible] Lyon will offer for sale Block No. 134, with the [illegible] house thereon—the late residence of Mr. Asa [illegible]. This is a valuable piece of property, well situated and within easy distance of the business part of the city.

INVITATION ACCEPTED.—We see by the Mountaineer that the Dalles firemen have accepted the invitation to attend the celebration here. A committee was appointed at a meeting held last week, to ascertain how many would attend, and this committee had called another [illegible] for this (Saturday) evening.

[illegible]-TO-MORROW.—The steamer Ranger is advertised for the campmeeting on Saurie's Island to-morrow [illegible], leaving Morrison street wharf at 8 o'clock.

The Pennie Troup makes an excursion to Fort Vancouver, leaving the same wharf at 9½ o'clock.

THE VERY FINEST.—We received by the boat Thursday [illegible] a basket of strawberries from the gardens of Mr. La Du, Coffin Rock, which were a little the finest [illegible] we have seen this year. Mr. La Du has our thanks.

[illegible] SERVICES.—Rev. Dr Eliot will preach at the [illegible] Church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and at half past 7 P. M.

MR. HOOD.—We learn that this famous mammoth ox will be led in the procession on the Fourth, at the head of the Association of Butchers.

[illegible] COURT.—The June term of the Circuit Court, Judge Upton presiding, will open on Monday. There are about ninety law and equity causes on the docket.

California Dispatches.

STOCKTON, June 10.—About four o'clock this afternoon a sailor on the schooner Alameda was knocked overboard by the boom and drowned in the San Joaquin river, about a mile below Rough and Ready.

STOCKTON, June 11.—Webster Brothers, of this city, this evening, started out their new and novel traction steam engine and ran the machine around a block in the commercial part of the city, to the great astonishment and amusement of the citizens. It was fitted up at Webster Brother's agricultural warehouse by Robert Baxter, the inventor, who acted as engineer on its first trip. Its working powers are to be thoroughly tested in a few days, and it is believed that both on the harvest field and in plowing land, it is destined to work a complete revolution in farm labor.

The examination of Wm. Dennis, for the killing of Judge S. G. Bolt, was concluded before Judge Brush to-day, and defendant's motion to be admitted to bail was refused.

TRINITY CENTRE, June 3.—Yesterday while the stage passengers were at Hubbard's Station, ten miles south of this place, the horses took fright and ran away. They kept the road for nearly a mile, when the stage upset and rolled down an embankment twenty feet high. The horses, with the front wheels, went about a mile farther and were stopped. No one was hurt.

YREKA, June 11.—The spring races over the Agricultural course commenced yesterday with a race of mile heats, two in three, for three and four year olds, for purse of $250. Entries, "Hamlet," "Up and Up," and "Red Bill," all sired by Gladiator. The race was very close and exciting, "Up and Up" winning the first and third heats and the race. "Hamlet" won the second heat. Time, 201, 155 and 2. The race to day was single dash of a mile, $100 purse, three entries, won by "Glencora," a two year old; time, 202. Also a half mile race, won by "Flitters," mare, in 53 seconds. Final contest to-morrow—three in five, free for all; three entries—"Jim Gleen," "Rattling Jack," and "Shooting Star," which promises to be interesting, as it is rumored that "Rattling Jack" is a ring in to beat "Jim Gleen." Pools selling this evening at 50 for "Jim Gleen," 45 for "Rattling Jack," and 20 for "Shooting Star."

In a lecture before the Geographical Society of New York, on the Pacific Railroad, its origin and progress, Mr. Wm B. Ogden, formerly of Chicago, but now of New York, spoke enthusiastically of the middle of the continent as a resort for invalids. He said the air of the mountain regions in the vicinity of Laramie City, 8,000 feet above the level of the sea, was so health giving that old trappers were accustomed to carry invalids to the mountain heights, and in six months they returned perfectly well. This fact, together with the numerous medicinal springs there located, he regarded as constituting a place far more desirable for the invalid than any part of the South or France or Italy.

The Boston Journal of Chemistry says: "No variety of wine is more dangerous than what is called claret. It is usually a vile mixture. Thousands of gallons are made by allowing water to soak through shavings, and adding thereto a certain portion of logwood and tartaric acid, and a little alcohol. Good judges can hardly discriminate between this mixture and the genuine article." Claret drinkers beware!

The Chicago Evening Post says: "The mission to Spain is given to General Sickles, with the spontaneous and hearty approbation of the entire Republican party. We are not merely glad to see a gallant soldier rewarded, but we believe a fitting person has been selected for a critical emergency. General Sickles' administration of affairs in South Carolina proved him to be a man—cool, sagacious, adroit, firm and practical. No one can question his abilities. Add to this a perfect knowledge of the French and Spanish languages—a valuable qualification, if not a sine qua non—and we see no reason to doubt that any negotiations with Spain, that may arise out of the Cuban insurrection, will be satisfactorily conducted."

Multnomah Engine Company No. 2.—Special meeting this (Saturday) evening, at 8 o'clock.

73 First street, Portland.

THE DAY fixed to commence work on the East Side Railroad is July 1st. By that time the Company will have sufficient Railroad Iron on the way or in Portland to complete twenty miles of road. Workmen without employment should be patient for the Company will give employment to a thousand men, at good wages, and of course KOHN & FISHEL will continue to sell the very best clothing in that time at remarkably low figures.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—The following recommendation comes from a source of such well known and indisputable character, that it requires no comment beyond its publication:

I have given 'Kana's Imperial Condensed Soap' a thorough and impartial trial, and am satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it. I washed three dozen white shirts, using half a bar of soap. It did its work well, requiring no rubbing, and I cheerfully recommend it as the best Washing Compound I ever used.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best quality, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.
Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.
